Silent Auction items needed!

Silent Auction is UUCQC's biggest fundraiser. We need items ASAP to make it happen! Bring them in!

We've received a lot of framed wall art, so that's covered. Any other estate-quality items, gift certificates to local businesses, theme gift baskets, even just a bottle of wine, are needed to make this event a success!

The office will be open:
9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday, March 24,
AND
9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, March 25
 to accept Silent Auction items.

No items will be accepted after noon on Saturday.

A couple of side notes:

- We've received plenty of card tables and sign ups to bring desserts. Thank you!
- We're offering child care at the event, including a movie and karaoke activity, so bring the kids!

Contact Amanda office@uucqc.org or Jane administrator@uucqc.org with questions. Thank you, and hope to see you Saturday!

Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) Justice Sunday

Rev. Jay Wolin

UUSC has a long history of helping those most vulnerable in the world. One of our former ministers, Waitstill Sharp was involved in founding UUSC. He and wife left their family and went to Europe to rescue Jews during World War II. I will share what UUSC is currently involved in, and what we can do to help those who are under threat today.

Conversation:

"Buddhism's Noble Eightfold Path - Right View"

Rev. Jay Wolin

In February, we talked about the Four Noble Truths of Buddhism.

1. All people suffer
2. Identifying the origin of our suffering (cravings, desires)
3. There is a way that can lead to the cessation of suffering
4. Following the Noble Eightfold Path is the way to the cessation of suffering

Starting in March, we will start exploring the Noble Eightfold Path. The first practice of the Noble Eightfold Path is Right View. Please join us to explore the questions of right and wrong, and how to explore the roots of our perceptions.
