Faith and Flow

Thia Sadlek, Religious Services Team

To renew our spirits we also need to have faith... in an enduring and limitless source of goodness, beauty, and truth. We need to trust there is more than me, of which I am a part, that is really "in charge" and "going somewhere." It takes a lot of faith and trust to resign as judge, jury, and commander in chief and relax, accept, embrace, and learn how to flow with life. Flowing with life, it leads to more love and action to create the world we know is waiting to be born in, around, and by all of us.
